I

MAKE A JOYFUL NOISE . . . . . Lekberg

Lekberg, a contemporary Swedish composer has set Psalm 100 with a variety of styles and moods. Note especially how the text and its meaning are portrayed in the different sections.

CANTATAE DOMINO . . . . . Schuetz

Heinrich Schuetz, a sixteenth century composer has woven voices in a polyphonic setting that virtually dances. Again, note how the style changes in the four sections.

“Sing ye to the Lord a new song, and his praise in the congregation of saints. Let Israel rejoice in him that made him, Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King. Let them praise his Name in the dance, Let them sing praises unto him with timbrel and harp.”

IN THE BEGINNING OF CREATION . . . . . Pinkham

Danial Pinkham, a contemporary American composer has utilized an electronic tape with a variety of choral sounds to picture the earth's creation.

LULLABY OF SEAFARERS . . . . . Zaninelli

- LET THY HAND BE STRENGTHENED ..... Handel

We most frequently associate the sacred oratorio and early opera with the name of Handel, specifically The "Messiah" and the "Hallelujah Chorus". This secular oratorio is a coronation anthem composed in 1727.

*"Let thy hand be strengthened,
And thy right hand exalted.*

*"Let justice and judgment be the preparation of thy seat.
Let mercy and truth go before thy face.*

"Allelujah"
