The Senior High Music Department of McFarland High School will hold its annual Spring Concert in the High School gymnasium Tuesday evening, May 9, at 8:00 p.m. Appearing on the program will be the Senior Chorus and Senior Band presenting the selections they performed at the District Music Contest at Poynette in April where they received "I" ratings.

The chorus will feature the "Mass in G" by Schubert with soloists Judy Mathys, Margaret Thompson, David Jones and Tom Thrun. Accompanying this work will be a group of strings from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. The public is invited to this concert for which there is no admission charge. Conductors are Mr. Thomas Dvorak and Mr. Charles Thomley.
