

11 from McFarland In All State Band

Eleven students from McFarland High School will be participating in an all-state high school reading band this Saturday at the UW-Stevens Point. Members of the band have been selected from schools all over the state of Wisconsin. The students will perform for 100 band directors from the state.

Mr. Thomas Dvorak, head of the McFarland Music department will be one of four guest conductors. Mr. Glenn Nielsen, junior high band instructor at McFarland, and Mr. Dvorak will accompany the eleven music students to Stevens Point.

Students who will be attending Saturday are David Jones and Daniel Smalley, on trumpet; Kathy Breitenbach and Sandra Butt on alto clarinet; Annette Pierce and Sharon Thompson on oboe; Steve Lacy, percussion; Richard Reissinger and Keith Helgersen on trombone; Kathy Hrovat on bassoon; and Steve Alan on tuba.